As ſeveral Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exerciſe their ſeveral Callings, contrary to the Laws of theſe Kingdoms; the following Abſtracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majeſties King George the Firſt and Second, and of His preſent Majeſty, for preventing ſuch Practices, are publiſhed, for the Information of all Perſons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Diſobedience to them: And it will be obſerved, that ſuch Penalties likewiſe extend to thoſe who are any ways concerned or inſtrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of theſe Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Inſtruments uſed by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themſelves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

And if any Perſon having been once convicted ſhall offend again, he ſhall be fined at the Diſcretion of the Court, and impriſoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being ſuch Artificers, ſhall go into any Country out of His Majeſty's Dominions, to exerciſe or teach the ſaid Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any ſuch Foreign Country, exerciſing any of the ſaid Trades, ſhall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambaſſador, Miniſter or Conſul of Great Britain, in the Country where ſuch Artificers ſhall be, or by any Perſon authoriſed by ſuch Ambaſſador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; ſuch Perſons ſhall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Adminiſtrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Deſcent, Deviſe or Purchaſe, and ſhall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majeſty's Uſe, and ſhall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majeſty's Protection.

The following RESOLUTIONS were then put and carried unanimously,

1. That having observed, with painful Concern, that Opinions, tending to loosen the Bonds of well ordered Society, destructive of Property, subversive of good Government, inimical to true Liberty, and finally most injurious to those Classes of Men whose Understandings they are chiefly calculated to mislead, have, with mischievous Diligence, been circulated in every Part of this Kingdom and its Colonies, we feel it our Duty, at this Time, to declare our firm Attachment to the established Constitution of Great Britain, and a Government by King, Lords and Commons.

2. That under a Constitution so wisely framed for the general Good of an extensive Empire, and by virtue of that Bond of Union which connects the West India Colonies with the Mother Country, the Prosperity of those Colonies has been hitherto progressive, and with it have been increased the Population and Industry of the Mother Country; from their reciprocal Intercourse has, in a considerable Degree, been derived the flourishing State of the Commerce, Manufactures and Navigation of Great Britain, influencing, through their immediate or remoter Channels, the Wealth and Comfort of every Description of its Inhabitants.

3. That, with zealous and steady Fidelity, we will study to preserve this Bond of Union unbroken: That we will, in our separate Capacities, endeavour to inculcate a Reverence for the established Laws, to discourage all seditious Writings, and sedulously to detect and defeat whatever may tend to disturb the Public Peace, and excite Disaffection to the lawful Government of this Country.

That the above Resolutions be signed by the Chairman, and inserted in the Gazette, and in all the Morning and Evening Public Papers.

JOHN ELLIS, Chairman.

Resolved unanimously,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to John Ellis, Esq; for his Conduct in the Chair.
